Open to Area Women

Local Stores Stage Style Color Contest

A fashion wardrobe coloring contest is being announced locally by two Newberry stores, one on Sartori in downtown Torrance, Joe Romono, manager, and the other on Pacific Coast Highway, Rolling Hills, R. Gardner manager, and the makers of Shu-Mak-Up, color coating for shoes and other fashion accessories. The winner will receive a $100 "convertible wardrobe."

Serving as judges for the contest, which ends Oct. 3, will be Mmes. Andrew Acampora, president of the Torrance Woman's Club and Mrs. Ida Hechinger of the Torrance Pilot Club. They will serve for the Rolling Hills Newberry Store. In the same capacity for the downtown Torrance store will be Mrs. William Faulds, of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and Mrs. William Doty of Las Vecinas.

The "Creators of Fashion Contest" is open to all local fashion conscious women and girls except employees of the sponsoring stores.

The suggested "convertible wardrobe" is on display in the window at both stores. Contest rules may be secured from the sales clerk. Contestants will color or decorate her own shoes, handbag, belt or gloves with any color or blend of Shu-Mak-Up colors to match any dress or suit in her wardrobe. She will then wear her costume, with the colored accessories, into the store on Saturday, Oct. 3, between 1 and 4 p.m.

The judges will then select the winner on the basis of attractive color combination, originality and neatness of color application. The decision of the judges will be final and the winner will be photographed in her costume.

The local girl or woman who wins this "Creators of Fashion Contest" will receive a $100 "convertible wardrobe" which will include an elegant fitted gold and white vinyl case containing 12 bottles of Shu-Mak-Up colors, 2 bottles of wax, 4 bottles of conditioner, 3 bottles of lustre powder, 4 bottles of glitter, 3 blending bottles, cleaning cloths, blending tray and artist's brushes.

The winner will also receive a fifty dollar merchandise order from the store which she will use to make her selection of accessories like handbags, belts, scarves, jewelry, millinery, hosiery, gloves, cosmetics or shoes.

Slaughter-Mooneyham Vows Read Here Aug. 15

First Christian Church in Torrance was the setting for the early evening wedding on Aug. 7, in which Lois Slaughter of Oxnard and Arvin Mooneyham of Torrance exchanged vows. Rev. Loren Biggs officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of blue chiffon over taffeta. A poudre blue crown held her short veil, which was embroidered in tiny rosebuds. Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis. Mrs. Paul Roberts, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in rose beige lace and wore a corsage of gardenias.

Paul Roberts served as best man. Steven Smith was ring bearer. Dennis Watkins and Kenneth Roberts were ushers and candlelighters. Jerry Roberts, organist, played the nuptial music. Marc Billigmier accompanied Kathy Reed and Jerry Roberts as they sang "I Pledge My Love" and "Love Me Tonight." The bridal couple knelt before an altar of flowers as Kathy Reed sang the "Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roberts, where the table was centered by a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Frank Smith served at the punch bowl and Mrs. Maggie Thatch poured coffee.

Mrs. Mooneyham was employed as Voucher Examiner at the Pacific Missile Range, Point Mugu, California, and Mr. Mooneyham is employed by the Mobile Oil Co. at Torrance.

Following a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Mooneyham are now residing at their home in Torrance.
